The Court made the following ORDER:

The writ petition is filed with a prayer as follows:

> "To issue a writ, order or direction more particularly one in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in removing the petitioner from service as arbitrary and illegal and consequently direct respondents to continue the petitioner in service and regularize his services with effect from the date of his initial appointment."

The first respondent is a Cooperative Bank and the other respondents are its officers. The first respondent is not amenable to the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The learned counsel for the petitioner could not bring anything to the notice of this Court to establish that the first respondent is amenable to the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed.

In view of the fact that the dispute is regarding the removal of the petitioner from the services of the first respondent bank, the petitioner will have the liberty to take such action in law, as is available to him, for sredressal of his grievance. There shall be no order as to costs.
